In accordance with Title 12 § 13155 § 5-B. It is unlawful to register an oversized ATV in the State of Maine. An "oversized ATV" is an ATV that is wider than 65 inches or weighs more than 2,000 pounds according to the manufacturer's specifications.

Exceptions that allow registration or operation of an oversized ATV include:

1. A Maine resident who previously registered that oversized ATV before January 1, 2022, may continue to register that ATV and may only operate it where specifically allowed by law.
2. A Maine resident owner of an oversized ATV that was previously registered before January 1, 2022, may transfer ownership of that ATV to a new Maine resident owner who then may register that ATV.

Check the option that describes the ATV being purchased:

☐ Not an oversized ATV, may be registered in the State of Maine - I certify that the ATV identified above is not considered an oversized ATV.

☐ Oversized ATV, cannot be registered in the State of Maine - I certify that the ATV identified above is an oversized ATV and cannot be registered in the State of Maine.

☐ Oversized ATV, but meets one of the exceptions listed above - I certify that I understand that even a properly registered oversized ATV is subject to restrictions on where it may be operated.

By signing this form, I verify that I have read the oversized ATV information above and understand the registration limitations of oversized ATVs. I further understand that making any false statements in this document is a crime punishable under Title 17A § 453 and is a class D crime.
